

AMSA & GSA Household Goods and Freight Conference Atlanta, Georgia, on February 3, 4 and 5, 2004

The General Services Administration (GSA), in connection with the household goods and freight transportation industries, is hosting a conference in Atlanta, Georgia. This conference is a must attend for federal government employees who ship freight or household goods, issue bills of lading, request/order transportation services, and process or pay transportation bills. Transportation Service Providers (TSPs) will also be available and exhibiting their services. Don't miss this unique opportunity to spend three days in Atlanta and get what we believe is the best, most important information to help you with your transportation needs. You will obtain the latest information on shipping household goods and freight using the Transportation Management Services Solution (TMSS), electronic bills of lading and payments, Customer Satisfaction Index (CSI), shipment reporting format...and more!

The Atlanta, GA, conference will be held on February 3, 4, and 5, 2004, at:
