gsa multiple award schedules and governmentwide acquisition contracts (GWACs)

GSA leverages its resources to offer its customer agencies millions of products through the use of two separate contracting vehicles: The Multiple Award Schedule Program and Governmentwide Acquisition Contracts (GWACs). Both programs offer customers the opportunity to purchase a vast array of products and services directly from commercial vendors while leveraging the power of the Federal government to bring you the best value and most flexibility for your Federal dollar.

GSA contracts feature nearly 11,000 leading suppliers and professional service providers offering nearly 4 million items covering everything from office supplies and furniture solutions to cutting-edge professional services. These contracts, along with a variety of on-line acquisition e-tools such as GSAAAdvantage®, e-Buy, e-Library, and the U-MAS virtual training campus, provide you with the resources to get your job done efficiently and on your terms!

how gsa contracts work for you

GSA Multiple Award Schedules (MAS) offer worldwide contracts with commercial firms to provide millions of state-of-the-art, high quality products and services at volume discount pricing. GSA awards contracts, with common terms and conditions in accordance with Federal Acquisition Regulations to ensure you receive fair and reasonable pricing from quality service providers. With MAS, you control the acquisition by managing the procurement from start to finish. You can use MAS contracts to meet your needs by placing a task order customized for your specific requirements. The result will be reduced procurement lead-times, cost savings, qualified contractors, credit toward your agency's socio-economic goals, and easy ordering while ensuring your agency complies with the Competition in Contracting Act (CICA.) The MAS Program offers these benefits, but leaves you in the driver's seat to satisfy your requirement.

GSA Governmentwide Acquisition Contracts offer total solutions for all your IT needs. Customers benefit by having access to long-term, pre-competed multiple award contracts that can stand up to the most challenging requirements, yet remain easy to use.

having trouble meeting your agency procurement preference goals?

GSA contracts allow you to receive small business credit for each task order placed with a Small, Small Disadvantaged, 8(a), Woman-owned, or HUBZone firm.
