

We offer diverse purchasing options to meet your specific needs and requirements.

GSA offers three scalable options designed to meet your unique requirements. We're constantly working to improve our delivery channels to address evolving government needs and preferences. Today, these proven approaches ensure we achieve our mission-critical objective – providing your agency with service, innovation and value.

Requisition from GSA.

Requisitioning directly from GSA puts the unmatched buying power of the federal government in your hands, providing exceptional cost-savings. It also streamlines the procurement process to get you what you need fast – vital in mission-critical situations that call for rapid response. And when you requisition goods from GSA, you can be confident that your purchases fully comply with federal laws and DoD regulations, giving you the peace of mind to focus on the mission at hand.

Purchase through a GSA Vendor. GSA's Multiple Award Schedules Program has long succeeded in helping federal, state and local government agencies – including the military – buy millions of products and services from pre-qualified vendors. The GSA Multiple Award Schedules Program simplifies the purchasing process by providing easy online ordering through GSAAvantage!®. In addition, all products and services are pre-negotiated with “ceiling” pricing, enabling you to negotiate costs to meet your stated goals. Collectively, this approach enables military and civilian customers to comply with federal laws, policies, and regulations, and achieve best value in pursuit of their mission goals.

Let Us Put Our Experience to Work for You. By combining key GSA resources with expert technical, financial, and contract services, we can help you plan, direct, and manage the procurement process – from simple purchases to complex acquisitions. The result is an unprecedented level of customized, scalable support before, during and after contracts are awarded.

GSA's range of fee-based services provide efficient and effective acquisition assistance, offer better value at lower cost, deliver a consistent acquisition experience, and support government-wide initiatives such as strategic sourcing and eGov programs. We can also provide support on a short- or long-term basis, for strategic or transactional projects, and put our staff on-site with you to ensure your mission's needs are met.

We provide online research and ordering systems to simplify procurement.

GSA's online resources take the paperwork out of procurement by providing an electronic process that boosts productivity and facilitates compliance.

We offer an array of web-based tools, such as GSAAvantage!®, eLibrary and eBuy to help make procurement transactions easier. With our eTools, you can place orders, learn about business opportunities, and enhance your overall buying experience online.

Federal Acquisition Service

Service | Innovation | Value

U.S. General Services Administration

Since 1949, the General Services Administration (GSA) has supported the missions of our government agencies with innovative, cost-effective solutions that help them achieve our nation's priorities. GSA's Federal Acquisition Service provides total acquisition solutions that address your agency's every need, with easy access to millions of products and services. We leverage the federal government's buying power to lower your costs, so you can use your resources more efficiently to increase the effectiveness of your mission-critical operations. With a wide range of procurement and online acquisition tools, GSA delivers the best value for your agency, anywhere in the world or right next door.

We are dedicated to supporting your mission needs and requirements to meet our nation's priorities.

Keep your focus on your mission, not on mission support.

GSA provides customers with professional acquisition expertise, with comprehensive support for virtually any purchasing need. We give customers access to a greater selection of products, services and support than any other source, with fast, compliant delivery methods and diverse industry and technical expertise. We also provide global, regional and local customer support, so you can keep your eye on the mission, and achieve your agency's goals.

Lower your costs to use your budget more effectively.

With the full buying power of the federal government at your command, you can put your budget to work purchasing cost-effective integrated solutions that use your human and financial resources more efficiently. Our online shopping and ordering systems simplify the procurement process, and provide transactional data to support business decisions.

Reduce risk by taking command of your purchasing process.

GSA allows you to maintain control over the purchasing process, while providing resources to ensure fair competition. Our proven industry partners can help your organization meet socioeconomic goals and government mandates, including "green" solutions to promote environmental stewardship. We also provide mechanisms that validate transparency and accountability.
